

THURSDAY MORNING JOB CLUB

May Topics You can register now!

Job Club is a job transition discussion and networking group. We cover topics on effective job search methods, career planning and thriving in the workplace. We learn, problem solve, address individual questions, and get personalized attention from CareerForce staff and the group. All are welcome!

May 4 – What Do Employers Want? (In Job Candidates) What do employers want from you, anyway? You matched every hard, technical skill in the job description, even got an interview, but they hired someone else! We'll work to unmask the mystery and come up with strategies.

Thursday, May 4, 9:00-11 AM REGISTER HERE This event virtual/ online only.

May 11 – Labor Market Trends: Aiming at Industries and Occupations In Demand What's going to be hot, and what's not? The job market isn't the only factor for career decision-making, but it sure is an important one! Tim O'Neill presents a revealing look at the present and future of Minnesota's evolving labor market.

Thursday, May 11, 9:00-11 AM REGISTER HERE This event virtual/ online only.

May 18 – The 20 Minute Networking Meeting Sandra Brick guest hosts this exploration of the techniques behind Marcia Ballinger and Nathan Perez's best-selling job search primer.

Thursday, May 18, 9:00-11 AM REGISTER HERE This event virtual/ online only.

May 25 – Quit, Switch, or Tough It Out? Most career paths come to an ultimate crossroads. At a certain point we usually face a decision: to quit, use grit, or to change careers? We'll examine books by Annie Duke (Quit: The Power of Knowing When to Walk Away), Arthur Brooks (From Strength to Strength) and Angela Duckworth (Grit: The Power of Passion and Perseverance) and apply their ideas to our own personal decision making.
